West, Headman,

Havre de Grace, Md., April 24 .--After trailing the leaders to the stretch turn, W. S. Murray's Sandy Beal came on stoutly in the final couple of furlongs to win the rich Chesapeake Stakes this afternoon before the largest crowd ever assembled at the popular race course here. Sandy Beal was the least playnere. Sandy Beal was the least play-ed horse in the race and paid his supporters more than 42 to 1. Jim-my Butwell had the leg up on Sandy Beal and his well judged ride had a good deal to do with the victory.

Paul Jones, a keen factor the en-tire trip, saved ground all the way and outclassed Harry Payne Whit-ney's Wildair in the final drive. Blazes, his highly thought of stable mpanion, was staggering at the Coltiletti Spills.

Jockey Coltiletti ad a bad spill in the third race when, as he was going to the front with a rush on Whitney's Panoply, his saddle slipped at the five-furlong pole. He was lucky to escape serious injury under the circumstances. In the race before he had a bit of bad luck, his from him at the post and ran a mile before the race. He was comelled to pull her up after the barier was sprung. Panoply led, his field, riderless, up o a few yards in front of the udge's stand, and many were of the pinion that he would have beaten Sir Barton with an even break. Sir Barton set a fast pace all the way and was under slight restraint most of the trip. Ticklish, which ac unted for third place, went a bit ide entering the home stretch.

Breaks Track Record.

The most thrilling finish of the meeting came in the fourth race when Star Master and Billy Kelly came down the stretch running as a single horse. Andy Schuttinger was lucky to get Star Master a nose in front at the wire. He had the advantage of the outside position. The race was run in the good time of 1:39 1-5. A. K. Macomber was credited with the Circle Purse, the first he has won, immediately after Star Master's victory.

roke the track record here for the four-and-a-half furlong route in the opening dash when his promising 2-year-old clipped a fifth of a second off. Star Voter made the route in :53 3-5.

Fourth Race—Lady Brummel—One that has been ready for some time.

J. R. Skinker's Back Bay managed last out the six furlong route in the second race and win his second urse during this meeting. Ellahdi, one which favors the trackers, was closing stoutly and would ave won in another stride. Subahan ready. Throw out that last ready. the second race and win his second purse during this meeting. El Mahdi, one which favors the track Irlsh Kiss toyed with her field in the sixth race, winning from War Machine and Crystal Ford by a length and a half.

BOAT RACE POSTPONED

Annapolis. Md., April 24.— High winds and rough water running on the inner course of the Sever.. River caused the postponement this afternoon of the boat races between Harvard and the Naval Academy.

The crews were held waiting until darkness for a calm that failed to come. If Harvard is able to secure permission from the faculty, the race will be rowed tomorrow afternoon, it was said at the academy tonight.
